THE daring Outrages which have been this Day committed by Perſons wearing the Cockades of Lord JOHN TOWNSHEND, and in his Intereſt, have made it abſolutely neceſſary to take Meaſures to prevent a Repetition of them. Accordingly, Care has been taken; and the worthy Electors in the Intereſt of LORD HOOD may be aſſured that a ſufficient Number of Peace Officers, properly ſtationed, will form a Line from PATERSON's AUCTION ROOMS, in KING-STREET, COVENT-GARDEN, to conduct them with perfect Safety to the Place of Poll; and that a ſimilar Line will be formed from SOUTHAMPTON-STREET to the Place of Polling on that Side the Huſtings.

 The Poll will begin at Nine o'Clock, and continue until Four o'Clock; and the Independent Electors of Weſtminſter are earneſtly requeſted to come forward to aſſert their own Independence, as well as the Independence of the whole Kingdom.
